Training cum Experience Certificate

This is certified that below mention candidate has worked with us as a trainer. He had given his best performance during training period. It is observed that he had participated in various activities like drafting work in CAD software & project related activity. He learns about Aviation technology, a classification based on Multirotor i.e. Quadcopter. They also learn its designing, programming, simulation and its flying.

During training we also found that he was a good listener, quick adjustable, positive attitude.

At the end of his training we analyzed that he got a good command on Flying of Quadcopter in air and they can easily maintain and rectify the error quickly.

We wish him for his bright future.
